

Scatter-Site Housing Program

To learn more about Scatter-Site Housing, call Iris House at (646) 548-0100

Assistance for Scatter-Site 1 housing is available for individuals & families with AIDS and/or HIV-related illnesses

Iris House clients who meet HRA/HASA eligibility requirements can get help in securing & maintaining housing in the community where they can live independently and access necessary services.

The Scatter-Site Housing Program (SSHP) provides a comprehensive scope of services:

- ☞ Housing Placement
- ☞ Case Management
- ☞ Maintenance Support
- ☞ Substance Abuse Services
- ☞ Educational Counseling (Housing Enhancement)
- ☞ Administrative Support

To be eligible for the Scatter-Site Housing Program, the client must:

- ☞ Be a client of HRA/HASA
- ☞ Be referred to Iris House, Inc. by HASA
- ☞ Have the ability to function independently in an apartment
- ☞ Have need for supportive housing services
- ☞ Have willingness to pay 30% of his/her income for program fees.*

\ Note: Clients on public assistance are not required to pay fees until they are in receipt of SSI/SSD or any other types of income. During that time, there is no request for fees other than phone, gas and electric, in which Scatter-Site Housing Program will assist with a fixed monetary allowance for these items.*
